

HALIBUT FARE OF IMPERATOR HERE

LANDS HALF OF TRIP AT GORTON-PEW FOR SHIPPING—
DENEHY HAS 10,000 REDFISH

A redfish fare, a halibut trip, five small seiners and 11 traps together with two gill netters landed a total of 174,250 pounds of fresh fish in this port since yesterday, according to report. The Frances C. Denehy landed 100,000 pounds of redfish at Gorton-Pew Cold Storage for filleting. She came direct from the grounds. The Imperator came from Boston with half her halibut fare, landing 18,000 pounds at Gorton-Pew Fresh Fish department for shipping boxed, and receiving 11, 7 1-2 and 6 cents per pound for her fish according to report. The G-P Fresh Fish department also had three of the seiners with 16,500 pounds of large mackerel, while one of her trap boats had 6000 "tinker" mackerel. The Cape Ann Cold Storage company had one seiner with 3000 large mackerel, while Murav & Tarr had two gill netters with 8000 cod and pollock. The Producers Fish company had a small seiner with 1000 "spike" mackerel. The traps had 26,250 pounds of whiting.

N. S. Pickled Fish.

Exports of spring mackerel continue in very good volume, the prevailing low price having proved an incentive to consumption. The catch has been a very good one. Besides, the summer run in St. Margaret's bay is expected shortly. These fish are usually small mediums, and small, and if specially cured a considerable quantity can be marketed in the United States. Prices are steady at $4 for large and $3.50 for mediums per parrel ex boat.

No change is reported in export herring; the demand is practically nil, the markets that usually take them being heavily overstocked. No sales are reported. A few lots are being offered at $2.75 ex boat, but buyers are not interested.

It is a little early for grocery herring, although later in the month new cure will be available.

Alewives are quiet. No recent sales are reported, the price probably obtainable being $2.75 ex boat.—Maritime Merchant.

TWO SWORDFISH IN BOSTON'S FLEET

HALF DOZEN SEINERS ALSO AT
HUB—SWORDFISH PRICE
TAKES DROP

A fleet numbering 32 was on hand at the Boston fish pier this morning. Two swordfish and a half dozen seiners were among the arrivals. Total receipts were 401,000 pounds of groundfish, 143 swordfish, 255,000 pounds of redfish, 469,000 pounds of mixed fish and 93,000 pounds of fresh mackerel.

Prices were lower on many varieties and swordfish slumped to 20 and 15 cents per pound. The drop in the swordfish price was probably due to the influx of fish from the provinces.

Yesterday 96 boxes were received by rail and another lot of 234 is expected today as well as a cargo of 163 aboard the gasoline boat C. K. Service 3d from Cape Breton.

LANDINGS FEW AT LOCAL WHARVES

SIX FARES—SCH. AMERICAN
HERE WITH HALIBUT
AND SHACK

The local dragger Marie and Winnifred arrived at the Slade-Gorton wharf of Gorton-Pew Fisheries with 45,000 pounds of redfish this forenoon for filleting, while at the Cape Ann Cold Storage, two mackerel seiners arrived with 40,000 pounds for freezing.

Only three trap boats and three gill netters landed fresh fish at local wharves today, their contributions being but 19,500 pounds of whiting, pollock and cod according to report. The Cape Ann Cold Storage had the whiting, 9000 pounds, while Murray & Tarr had two of the gill netters with 7500 pounds of pollock and cod, and the Gorton-Pew fresh fish department, the third netter with 3006 cod.

Sch. American, Capt. Simon Theriault arrived from Western banks during the night with 80,000 pounds cod and haddock for Davis Brothers, and 35,000 halibut for Boston next Monday.

FOURTEEN WITH MACKEREL AT HUB

ONE SWORDER AND 18 WITH MIXED FISH FARES—MAR-KET IS LOWER.

Thirty-three arrivals were recorded at the Boston fish pier this morning. Fourteen of them were seiners, one had swordfish and the rest brought in mixed fish. Total receipts were 486,000 pounds of fresh mackerel, 34 swordfish, 4200 pounds of butterfish and 190,000 pounds of mixed fish.

The market was lower. Swordfish price took the biggest tumble. Heavy receipts from Nova Scotia is the principal reason for the drop on this variety. The Yarmouth steamer had 75 swordfish yesterday and on Monday two firms have 365 swordfish arriving.
